

Catherine Buckley, about 1970-1979

Object Number: BATMC 2010.122

Woman's long patchwork-effect dress in cream, green, red and yellow cotton machine-made curtain lace in floral, check and geometric designs pieced together as patchwork over underdress in jade-green synthetic silk, with stand-up collar, separate sash tie belt in same fabric, long full sleeves with rouleau cuffs and tie fastenings. Long full tiered skirt with flounce at hem. Label: Catherine Buckley Fragile. This garment is made from a jacquard material woven between 1905-1935. Because of its age please handle with great care. Size: 10.

Given by Jaquie Arcus

